

Nicholas Toumbekis | General Counsel/Managing Partner

In January of 2005 Nicholas Toumbekis joined Genatt Associates as General Counsel. He is a founding partner of the Design Professional, Construction & Environmental Services Group at the firm. Nick joined Genatt after spending 10 years as a litigation attorney representing design and construction professionals. Nick began his career in 1993 as a law clerk for Hon. Michael A. Degnan in Superior Court, Essex County, New Jersey. In 1996 he joined Wilson, Elser, Moskowitz, Edelman & Dicker specializing in Lawyer's Professional Malpractice and Contractor's Errors and Omissions claims defense. In February of 1997, Nick joined the Architect's & Engineer's Practice Group of L'Abbate, Balkan, Colavita & Contini, LLP. Nick was named Partner in December of 2004. At L'Abbate, Nick litigated a wide range of matters from personal injury claims to multi-party construction delay claims. He has also actively represented design professionals and contractors in connection with contract negotiations and Building Department matters. He has experience representing the Queens Chapter of the American Institute of Architects and the New York Society of Professional Engineers.

Nick received his Jurist Doctorate from Quinnipiac College and his Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from George Washington University.

Associations

Allied member of the American Institute of Architects (AIA)

Endorsed Insurance Broker for the Peconic Chapter of AIA

Member of the American Council of Engineering Companies (ACEC)

Member of the National Brownfield Association